About Kyle:

Kyle Balda has been working professionally in feature animation for the past 12 years, most notably with

Pixar Animation Studios and

Industrial Light & Magic. He began his career studying traditional animation at The California Institute of the Arts in 1991. Continuing his training during summer internships with Lucas Arts and Pacific Data Images in the summer of 93. Shortly after, Balda joined the crew of Industrial Light & Magic where he participated in such films as

The Flintstones,

The Mask,

Mars Attacks and

Jumanji where he played the role as Supervising Animator. After animating on Peter Jackson's The Frighteners at Weta Digital in New Zealand, Kyle returned to California to work at Pixar on such films as

A Bug's Life,

Monsters Inc. and as Directing Animator of

Toy Story 2.

Kyle is presently living in France where for the past three years he has been conducting animation workshops at various European film schools including Les Gobelins, The Animation Workshop, and Filmakademie Baden-Wuerttemberg as well as leading a 3D animation workshop at Richard Williams 2002 Masterclass and numerous lectures in European film festivals. Kyle also stays heavily involved in 3D production animation as a director and supervising animator at Macguff Ligne and Passion Studios in Paris
