

Frame by Frame #4 French edition

SATURDAY OCT. 13. FROM 11 AM

Frame by Frame is celebrating the fact that France is on the forefront of international animation. Saturday Oct.13. is dedicated to everything related to French animation. We will see examples of what is going on within the animation industry and meet some of the people that make French animation so exciting. Bon appétit!

NOK 150,-

Program

11:00 Les Gobelins shorts breakfast screening	16:15 Break
12:00 Antoine Antin: The French Connection	16:45 Marc Jousset: The art of Persepolis
13:15 Drifa Benseghir: 3d a la France	17:45 VJ presentation
14:15 Break	18:45 Break
14:45 Kyle Balda: From Pixar with love	19:00 Persepolis (NB! open screening, additional ticket)
15:45 Robert Bennett: Pantomime in Paris

Marc Jousset is managing the successful studio Je Suis Bien Content in Paris and art director of Persepolis

Antoine Antin is a classically trained animator working on both international feature films and artistic shorts

Kyle Balda has experience from Pixar and ILM and is currently back in France working at Macguff Ligne and Passion Studios

Drifa Benseghir is a freelance 3d-animator in Paris. In between work on various productions, she also teaches 3d at Les Gobelins

Robert Bennett is an internationally acclaimed pantomime artist working in France and has been guest speaker for Richard Williams' and Kyle Balda's animation Master Classes

VJs are visual artists working much like DJs only mixing visual components instead of sound

www.norskanimasjon.no