Kyle Balda: From Pixar with love

Kyle Balda has been working professionally in feature animation for the past 12 years, most notably with Pixar Animation Studios and Industrial Light & Magic. He began his career studying traditional animation at The California Institute of the Arts in 1991. Shortly after, Balda joined the crew of Industrial Light & Magic where he participated in such films as

The Flintstones,

The Mask and

Mars Attacks. After animating on Peter Jackson's

The Frighteners at Weta Digital in New Zealand, Kyle returned to California to work at Pixar on such films as

A Bug's Life,

Monsters Inc. and as Directing Animator of

Toy Story 2.

Kyle is presently living in France where for the past three years he has been conducting animation workshops at various European film schools. He also stays heavily involved in 3D production animation as a director and supervising animator at Macguff Ligne and Passion Studios in Paris.

Antoine Antin: The French Connection

Antoine Antin is a classically trained animator working at Biba films and Neomis Animation in Paris. Through a series of poetic short films he has developed his personal and very distinct style of animation. In addition to working on his own projects Antin has also done work on the international features

Curious George and

Asterix and the Vikings. At Frame by Frame Antin will showcase some of his short films and talk about classic animation in France.
